

Intro

This is an archive of deleted fanfics compiled by SilverCookieDust (aka SCD, aka "I" and "me" and other first person pronouns). Fanfics in this archive are not written by SCD. All works are property of their respective authors.

Most of these fics are for Harry Potter, as that is my primary and oldest fandom, but there are some from other fandoms and I will take anything from any fandom.

Note that this is not a rec list. The fics on this list range in quality from "oh my god that's AWFUL" to "lord have mercy this is the BEST", as per reader's preferences. There are also a variety of pairings, warnings, other tags, etc.

You can see the complete list of fics here or here.

Organisation

Everything is divided into folders depending on fandom. Crossovers are NOT duplicated in their individual fandom folders. The "Harry Potter" folder has further folders for each letter of the alphabet, representing author names.

Story files are labelled "[Author] - [Title]" and should be in alphabetical order by author name. A few fics have two authors in which case it's written "[Author] & [Author] - [Title]" and still in alphabetical order.

Available Formats

Varied, depending on how they were downloaded. For the most part, I try to make everything available as a PDF, EPUB, and AZW3, but doing so depends on (a) if I can be bothered to do the conversion (which, as I have OCD, is most of the time), and (b) what format I originally find the story in.

If I find a story in PDF, it doesn't get converted because converting from PDF inevitably screws up the layout and formatting; tidying it up requires going through it carefully to make sure there aren't breaks in the middle of paragraphs, and similar errors, which is time consuming. That said, I do plan to read and fix all the PDFs, but don't hold your breath waiting; it'll take me a while. (Like, years.)

Story X has Terrible Formatting!

This happens occasionally, either because something gets messed up during download or for reasons unknown. If it's not one I've already noted below, then let me know. If you like, you can fix the errors yourself. (If requested, I can provide the story in .doc or .rtf format.) If you do reformat a story, I will be glad to take it and replace the archived copy. (Credit will be given to you for sorting it out, if you wish.)

Fics with known formatting issues:

Come Ready and See Me (Harry Potter) by starrymoonmaiden: Due to the abnormal method of download, this story has errors in paragraph and page breaks, as well as possible font formatting errors (incorrect bolding/italics).

Serpent in Paradise I: The Fellowship of the Serpent (Lord of the Rings) by AEMI: Contains paragraph breaks in odd places, e.g. in the middle of a sentence.

Naruto Reads Naruto (Naruto) by Sage of Seals: This fic is mostly alright; as far as I can tell, the large sections of bolded text are the fics that the characters are reading. However it has no chapter headings. Only the internal fic chapters are marked (that is, the chapters of the fics the characters are reading) I cannot easily determine where the actual chapter beginning/ends are.

Other Notes

If you know that a story in the archive is hosted somewhere on the web please provide a link for me and I will remove the story from the archive. However, I won't remove stories that are now only available through archived pages on the Wayback Machine.

If you have a deleted fic that's not in the archive, feel free to email it to me! As mentioned above, I take anything from any fandom, not just Harry Potter, but please include at least some information about the story. (At minimum I need to know the fandom, title, and author.)

Updates to the Archive

These mostly happen when someone comes asking me for a specific fic. Occasionally I do large updates of multiple fics that have been sitting on my PC for a while. If you want to know about updates as and when they happen, please follow the tumblr: scd-ff-archive.tumblr.com

Notes About the List of Fics

Tags may not be entirely accurate; they're based on the author's information. Where known, a lack of pairings or warnings is marked by "None". Word counts are rounded to the nearest 100 words. You can contact me to inform me of incorrect information.

Some stories are sequels/prequels/otherwise related to a story that is available online. In these cases, the notes column contains a link to the fic in question. If a story says it's related to another but has no link, the story is somewhere in the archive and usually by the same author, unless otherwise noted.

Because these stories come from a variety of websites which use different rating methods, all ratings have been generalised to:

- All Ages
- Teen
- Mature
- Explicit

Warnings and Other Tags

For the most part, these are determined by legality and potential to cause reader distress. An illegal act (rape, incest, violence, etc) or triggering action (suicide, self-harm, drug use, etc) is marked under "Warnings", legal sexual acts have their own column, while anything else I consider of note are listed under "Other Tags". If you think something listed in other tags should be marked as a warning/sexual tag, please inform me.

Please note that in some cases, listed sexual acts may not be done consensually and may be abused (e.g. unsafe BDSM) especially in stories also tagged with rape or dub-con sex.

Character Tags

Characters are listed in alphabetical order by their first name. Original characters (OFC/OMC) are listed last.

If a character's first name isn't known but they have a title (Madam, Auror, etc) then they will be listed as "[Title] [Name]" but alphabetically placed by the name. So, for example, "Remus Lupin" would be listed before "Madam Rosmerta".

"James Potter I" and "Lily Evans" refer to Harry Potter's parents; "James Potter II" and "Lily Potter" refer to his children.

Notes About Specific Fics

The Price of Love (Harry Potter) by RogueSugah: The non-explicit version of this story is available here on FFN. Please note that although the FFN version has more chapters, this is because the uncensored version combined chapters so that they are longer.

The Draco Trilogy (Harry Potter) by Cassandra Claire: I have had reports of the epub of these fics causing an error on Apple products. I do not own any Apple products, so I'm not able to reproduce the error for testing, but I believe it may have been caused by the overlarge chapters in Draco Veritas. I have edited it so that a break occurs in those chapters (between scenes, where it should not affect reading smoothness) which has hopefully fixed the error. If it hasn't, but you are able to figure out and fix the problem then please inform me so I may update the archive.
